

Honeymoon Blueprint

Congratulations! Are you ready to plan your honeymoon?

To help you from being overwhelmed by the choices, costs and countless possibilities, we've put together these amazing tips for planning this very special celebration.

Honeymoon Blueprint

Find your perfect location. Many venues book up in advance. Narrow down a short list try to visit your preferred destination to tour 3 or 4 resorts. What you see online isn't always the same as what you see in person.

Onsite Coordinator. Many All Inclusive resorts in Mexico and the Caribbean have onsite coordinators to handle special details for you. This may help reduce some of the stress and allow you to relax and enjoy your stay.

Honeymoon Blueprint

Travel Time. Consider travel distance between departure cities and your location. Too much time traveling means less time celebrating.

Weather. Consider seasonal weather at your preferred location. Off-season at some locations can mean lower costs and less crowding at the resort. Airfare may also be lower.

Wristbands. Are wristbands required at your selected resort? Consider this when it comes to your pictures and tan lines.

Honeymoon Blueprint

Passports. Get, or renew, your passport. Most destinations require the passport be valid for at least 6 months beyond your return date.

Extra Activities. Off-property excursions are a great way to explore the destination. If you are traveling during peak season, consider booking tours before you leave home.

Take a cruise. Taking a cruise is like getting multiple vacations in one. You get to visit different destinations, but only have to unpack your suitcase once.
